

NNLM MAR Academic SAG Meeting Minutes
February 13, 2019

TOPIC	DISCUSSIONS/RECOMMENDATIONS	ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN
Attendees	David Nolfi (chair), Karla Block, Elsa Bruguier, Jacqueline Bryant, Christopher Duffy, Nancy Glassman, Anita Kuiken, Sherry Morgan, Michelle Price, Elaina Vitale (NNLM MAR)	Elaina called the meeting to order at 10:30 am.
MAR updates	Elaina shared MAR's funding announcements with group ( https://nnlm.gov/mar/funding ) and clarified differences in funding this year compared to past years. Elaina also shared suite of trainings MAR is providing for interested applicants, including All of Us Community Engagement funding webinar, Grants and Proposal Writing webinar, and Health Statistics on the web. MAR staff have geared these trainings specifically towards applicants in MAR's region.	SAG members will share funding announcements with colleagues and listservs as appropriate.
Critical Appraisal Institute for Librarians: SAG member update	Elaina informed group about a 2018-2019 MAR funded project, the Critical Appraisal Institute for Librarians, coordinated by librarians at the New York Medical College and other librarians across the country. CAIFL is a 6 week online program designed to educate librarians about all aspects of critical appraisal, and will cultivate librarian confidence in critically appraising literature. Participants are eligible for 35 MLA CE. Two SAG members, Sherry and Michelle, are current participants in CAIFL and shared their experiences thus far. Both members report satisfaction with class content and delivery methods, are excited to	SAG members will share CAIFL announcement with colleagues and listservs as appropriate ( https://guides.library.nymc.edu/CAIFL ).

	apply content to their current work, and are both thinking about ways to continue to further their knowledge after CAIFL concludes. CAIFL organizers intend to offer CAIFL again in 2020.
SAG member updates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• David Nolfi shared news of a successful hire at Duquesne for a health sciences librarian with health professions responsibilities. He had an article published in JMLA about interprofessional education (http://jmla.mlanet.org/ojs/jmla/article/view/455), and is continuing to receive many requests for systematic and scoping reviews.</li> <li>• Karla Block shared news that she is working to support the nursing accreditation process at her college. She worked on a freshman orientation program and introduced a lockbox (modeled on escape rooms). She is participating on a microcredentials committee and is working to support an expanded nursing program at TCC in partnership with a local hospital.</li> <li>• Elsa Bruguier is currently the solo librarian at her campus of UCC and is supporting the college as it expands programs. She is also working on several campus accreditation efforts.</li> <li>• Jackie Bryant is also working on accreditation for nursing at PCC, and is putting together classes and materials for National Nutrition Month. Elaina shared NNLM class on nutrition (https://nnlm.gov/classes/nutrition).</li> </ul>	Elaina is organizing a national webinar about librarians supporting accreditation efforts at their institutions (several SAG members have volunteered to speak). TBD: October 2019. Members of group are individually meeting to discuss challenges and support for systematic review services and migrations to new ILS.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nancy Glassman announced news Einstein is moving to a new ILS and requested feedback if others had made a similar transition. She is also working on collaborations with students and post docs on scholarly communication.</li> <li>• Anita Kuiken announced success of systematic review program and requested feedback on how to support with a small staff. She is also mentoring an LIS student.</li> <li>• Sherry Morgan reports very busy systematic review services as well; and shared news about her work with MPH and nursing grad students. She also shared an update about participating in CAIFL (see above).</li> <li>• Michelle Price shared update about CAIFL participation (see above), and work on systematic reviews and on research methods with students. She continues to receive consulting requests at a high volume for each.</li> </ul>
Wrap-up	Next meeting: May 2019.	Elaina will send poll in April 2019 to determine member availability and schedule next meeting. Meeting adjourned at 11:25 am.